“The Rosebuds got their start in Wilmington NC, when Ivan Howard and Kelly Crisp met in college and decided to combine their love for music and performing and start a band. Combining influences ranging from late 60’s pop to mid 80’s new wave to early 90s indie-rock, The Rosebuds create melodies and infectious hooks that are instantly timeless. The Rosebuds Make Out was produced by local legend Brian Paulson (Wilco, Beck, Squirrel Nut Zippers).”

-- Merge Records

The Close formed in the fall of 1995 outside a dormitory in Auburn, Alabama. Founding members bassist Dustan Nigro and guitarist and singer Brooks Meeks practiced and recorded in a dorm storage closet. After graduating college in 1999, The Close relocated to Atlanta, GA bringing with them keyboardist and vocalist Theresa Marie Fedor and drummer Keefe Justice.

Touring in advance and in support of their 2003 release It's a Secret to Everybody, The Close was on the road five months out of the year, sharing stages with Enon, Ted Leo/ Pharmacists, Mates of State and Denali amongst others.

In January 2004, The Close began work on a new full length, Big League Chew, at Atlanta's Zero Return Studios (Superchunk, Shipping News, Cat Power) and are preparing for its release in Spring 2005.
